INCREASED SALE

OF

THE TRIBUNE.

Customers have reported, nearly every day of the week, lately, that after a certain hour in the day, copies of THE TRIBUNE cannot be had from newsdealers near them or from newsboys on the trains.

This is a necessary and inevitable incident of a steadily increasing sale of the paper, and is aggravated by the rush which happens, every day or two, for extra copies, containing political features of special importance.

The remedy is entirely within the customer's own control. He should buy his paper, regularly, from the same newsboy or dealer, or order it served daily at his house. The latter plan is best. During the remainder of this campaign, every day will bring a fresh surprise or a new piece of strategy on the political field of battle. THE TRIBUNE will have all the regular news and many special features of its own.

Order the nearest newsdealer to serve THE TRIBUNE at your house.

THE TRIBUNE.
